NATIONALIZING THE UNION PARTY.

MR. H. J. RAYMOND, of New York, in a carefully prepared speech, made by him, a few days ago, in the House of Representatives, submitted some reflections on the wisdom and necessity of nationalizing the Republican party. This is certainly a most desirable object, and is had at heart by every thoughtful member of that organization. The Conservatives have not given it a more earnest or a more dispassionate consideration than the Radicals. How shall it be accomplished? Whoever attempts to solve this question, upon the basis of actual data or of admitted principles, will find it much easier to rest in generalities than to descend to particulars. MR. RAYMOND affords in his own person a striking illustration of this. In his theories of pacification he coincides with the President. He holds it best for the nation, and for the Republican party, that proscriptions should be entirely discarded, and that an era of good fellowship should be inaugurated by consigning the rebellion and its concomitants to oblivion. But when the responsibility of action is so forced upon him that he cannot evade or shuffle it off, he votes for the Congressional Plan of Reconstruction, which proscribes all the leading spirits among the insurgents.

Every republican understands that sooner or later all the States will be again represented in Congress and the Electoral Colleges. We certainly hope this will happen before the next presidential election. It is of great importance that the republican or Union party be organized on such a foundation as to be efficient in each of the Southern States. To what section of Southern population shall that party look for sympathy and co-operation? Is it possible to placate the leaders of the revolt? President JOHNSON has been experimenting to that end for some months, and with results that do not look hopeful in our eyes. By his method he seems to have revived and given vent to the animosities and repulsions in which the war originated. Nor is this all. He seems to have repelled and cowed those sections of Southern population who either did not go into the rebellion, or went into it reluctantly. If he had resorted to a different method, and had tried to remit the political power into the hands of new men; a fairer prospect of reconcilement would be presented to-day.

THE SOUTH IMPROVING.

The Richmond Whig publishes a letter from a gentleman of Louisa county, Va., who served four years in the rebel army, in which he comes out for impartial suffrage, on the basis of intelligence. He says:

"I am as much opposed to allowing these freedmen to come en masse to the ballot box as any man; and four years' service in the illustrious A. N. V. should be surety that I am incapable of a thought or a feeling inimical to the South. But I can freely declare that I know many negroes better qualified for the suffrage, morally and intellectually, than thousands of the present white voters. Whether any man's color should exclude him from political privileges I am in some doubt; but I am quite sure that no man's color should invest him with such privileges.

"My propositions suggest a compromise between extremists. No man, of what complexion soever, should be permitted to vote unless properly qualified; yet, so qualified, he should vote, be he as black as Erebus. The proposed measure will admit but few freedmen—and those of a superior class—to the franchise, and will exclude forever the vast body of ruffianism, whose just destiny is to be governed, and not to govern. I think we will be infinite gainers by this plan. If we delay, or persistently refuse the privilege of suffrage to them in this restricted form, we are likely to have universal suffrage granted to them by act of Congress. Give the blacks the qualified suffrage I suggest, and even fierce Thaddeus Stevens may relent."

Mr. C. G. Baylor, another Southern gentleman, writes to Senator Stewart, of Nevada, saying:

"The first effect of your policy would be to attract to the side of law and social order all the intelligent portion of our colored citizens. This body would effectually harmonize those very elements of conflict between the races which the President fears. The disfranchisement of the freedmen would, on the other hand, turn the more intelligent of the race into dangerous leaders of their brethren, and thus produce the very state of things which the President desires to avoid.

"The second effect of your proposition would be to stimulate the whole body of freedmen by industry and improvement, to come also into possession of the franchise.

"I am free to say that your measure upon this point, merely from a Southern point of view, with regard to the questions of social order and industrial thrift, is based upon sound principles of political economy. There is nothing to oppose to them except a prejudice which is irrational or unjust, whether it be the "poor white man's" prejudice or the late "slave owner's" prejudice, or a Northern "white man's" prejudice. The necessity of our position at the South requires just this measure with a view solely to our domestic tranquility and the proper organization of our labor system.

"The tendency of things now is in the direction of serfdom, and unless checked by the principle of equal citizenship, based on impartial suffrage, will lead to the same results already witnessed in the West Indies. Like causes will produce like effects.

"With you at the North this question possesses no local importance. If all your colored people relapse into idleness, or into dirt, filth and death, or rise to menace society, neither your prosperity or public health or social security are endangered. With us, on the contrary, industry, respectability, and cleanliness and social contentment among our colored neighbors are absolutely vital—vital to our prosperity, health, and security.

"Believe me, impartial suffrage is the foundation stone of Southern reorganization."

In these extracts MR. H. J. RAYMOND will find abundant suggestions on the real basis of conciliation. In the end it will be found that the Radicals comprehended fully the only practicable scheme for thoroughly reorganizing Southern Society on a profitable and enduring basis.

DISCOURSING of Fenianism in the British army, and the responsibility entailed by the military oath, the London Times declares that "a man who solemnly takes service under a government, and then proves false to his flag and his uniform, has forfeited all claim to mercy, and is no fit subject for clemency." How about Gen. Robert E. Lee and the rest of that set?

IT is stated, on what appears to us to be competent authority, that Senator Cowan has written to a gentleman of this county, holding office under the federal government, signifying that the whole office-holding class are expected to vote democratic tickets next Fall.

CONGRESSMEN who vote to give $50,000,000 to any of the leaders of faction in Mexico will have an account to settle with their constituents. Let them beware!

It is the Impression of Some.
That because a medicine is advertised they are of no account, arguing that if they were all they were represented to be, they would sell on their merit. Whilst we admit that this is true in many instances, we know by experience of at least two exceptions. We allude to the Rev. F. A. Wilson's great remedy for consumptions, and Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, both medicines largely advertised by Joseph Fleming, Druggist, No. 81 Market street, and both of them have performed some really wonderful cures here amongst our own citizens, who have given certificates to that effect. We would suggest to those of our readers who may require medicines of this description, to give them a trial, as we assure them they are all they are represented to be.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
MUSHROOM IMITATIONS.
Success is the "prevalent cradle" of innumerable humbugs. No sooner had HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made their mark in the world than up sprang a host of imitations, and as the fame of the great restorative grew and spread, the pestiferous crop of poisonous mockeries thickened. But the true medicine has lived them down. One by one they have disappeared. When the bellows of puffery, which kept alive the feeble fire of their borrowed reputation, ceased to blow, they ceased to live, and thus they continue to come and go. Meanwhile, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, the great protective and remedial tonic of the age, have progressed in popularity with each succeeding year. Their success as a means of preventing and curing the diseases resulting from malaria, unwholesome water, and all unhealthy climatic influence, has been boundless; and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, General Weakness and Debility, and all complaints originating in Indigestion, they are now admitted to be superior to any other preparation ever advertised or prescribed. From the home market, to which a few years ago they were confined, their sale has been extended into every State in this Union, over the whole of South and Central America, Mexico, the West Indies, the Sandwich Islands, Australia, China and Japan. Home and foreign testimony continue to show that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are the most remarkable tonic and invigorant now before the world.

Hostetter's Bitters

England's Position in the Crisis.

NEW YORK, June 25.—We have the following additional foreign news by telegraph:

In the Corps Legislatif a letter was read from the Emperor Napoleon containing the following important declarations: Had the conference assembled my government would have declared that France repudiated all ideas of territorial aggrandizement so long as the European equilibrium remained undisturbed. France could only think of an extension of her frontiers in the event of the map of Europe being altered to the profit of a great power, and the bordering provinces expressing by a formal and free vote a desire for annexation. In the absence of these circumstances, the French government prefers to any territorial acquisition, a good understanding with its neighbors, resulting from its respect for their independence and nationality. The Italian army have desired for the Germany confederation, a position more worthy of its importance for Prussia, better geographical boundaries for Austria, and the maintenance of their just position in Europe, after the cession of Venetia to Italy, in exchange for territorial compensation. The conference has failed. France has nothing to gain by a sword! The French Government thinks not. Whatever may be the result of the war which may break out, no question affecting us will be resolved without the assent of France. France, therefore, will continue to observe an attentive neutrality, confident in her rights and calm in her strength.

The inadvisibility of a debate upon the affairs of Germany and Italy was then declared by a vote of two hundred and two against thirty-four.

The Emperor's letter created a great sensation.

A Berlin dispatch of the 12th says the Austrian embassy has been recalled, and the interests of Austrian subjects in Prussia will be confided to the care of the Dutch Minister.

Garibaldi arrived at Como on the 10th, and was enthusiastically received by the authorities, the people, army and the volunteers.

The Austrian government has still garrisoned Warsaw to be in readiness for the conveyance of ten thousand troops. Omar Pasha is to command the Turkish troops to occupy the principalities. Five thousand of which are to be loaned the Porte by the Viceroy of Egypt. The Youmain army will be raised to one hundred and fifty thousand instead of Turkish invasion of the principalities. The Austrian government, deeming it best not to contest the occupation of Holstein by the Prussians, withdrew the whole of the Austrian troops.

On the 11th, the Prussians dispersed the estates of Holstein, which had met at Itzehoe, and established a new common government for Schleswig and Holstein, and promised to convoke the common estates of the two Duchies on the 12th. The whole of Holstein was in the hands of the Prussians.

In the sitting of the Federal Diet, June 11th, Austria moved for the mobilization for the federal army. The motion was carried in reception of the Prussian contingent. The motion was not announced before hand to the Prussian representation, and Prussia has declared in a note that the motion of Austria would regard the Confederacy as dissolved if the Austrian motion should prevail.

Prussia has also published a plan of reform, the chief feature of which is the exclusion of Austria from the reconstructed Germany. Austria, on the other hand, now proposes the constitution of an independent government and the establishment of a Directory to consist of three members.

A telegram of the Darmstadt had stated in the Legislature that the Federal Diet would soon recognize the Prince of Augustinburg as Duke of Holstein.

LATEST.—London journals think Austria will now consider herself justified in striking a blow, and will immediately order Benedek to commence the campaign.

Prince Napoleon's speech in the Senate yesterday morning, Aaron Lapp, connected with the establishment, was arrested on suspicion of being the incendiary thereof.

St. John's day was appropriately celebrated at Lexington, on Saturday, by a vast concourse of the Masonic fraternity. Five thousand people were present.

NASHVILLE, June 25.—A party of armed men pretending to be searching for stolen property, visited eight or ten negro families at Goodlettsville. The negroes were subjected to numerous indignities. Complaint was made thereof to Gen. Fisk, who referred the matter to the civil authorities, who sent two men to arrest and bring the offenders here.

FARTHER POINT, June 25.—The steamer Moravian, which left Liverpool at 2:30 p. m. on June 14th, and Londonderry on the 15th, passed this point at noon to-day.

The Austrian Government, in sending the Prussian Embassador his passport, informed him it took the step because it looked as if the withdrawal of the Austrians from Holstein was taking place under compulsion from Prussia. The Prussian Government, in giving the Austrian Embassanor the passports which he demands, accompanied them with a letter acknowledging the courteous manner with which he fulfilled his diplomatic functions as Austrian Ambassador at Berlin. Austria is said to have confided her interests at Berlin and Florence to the Dutch Ministers at those courts. The Ministers of France and Bavaria are said to have declined to look after Prussian interests at Vienna.

The Austrian courier, proceeding from Vienna to General Gablenz, was stopped in Prussian territory, and his dispatches taken from him.

It was stated that a body of Austrian troops is about to concentrate near Frankfort-on-the-Maine. Gen. Gablenz and the Duke of Augustenburg had proceeded thither.

The Austrian army has been in position on the Silesian frontier, were throwing up defences on the roads which led to Bavaria.

General Manteuffel had ordered every public functionary and official in Holstein, to solemnly engage to submit unconditionally to all orders of the King of Prussia and those acting in His behalf.

The Daily News' correspondent says: The first hostile movement of Italy will be to throw 80,000 men in one body across the Po, following that up by pouring 20,000 into Venetia.

The Venetian correspondent of the Times describes the positions of the Austrian army of the north—the centre between Almutz and Prague, the left wing extends from Prague to the northern frontier of Bohemia, and the right wing from Olmutz to Cerow, where there is a strongly intrenced camp.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says: It is believed that the four corps d'armee which are in Germany fusing their best efforts to reestablish between the Sovereigns that peace which their people so earnestly desire, have done more than has been generally supposed. Prussia was also employing all her influence with the secondary German States. The writer says there are still people in Paris who believe that war may yet be avoided. The question of the mobilization of the French army proposed by Austria, was still pending in the Legislative Diet. Prussia opposed it as opposed to national law, and called on the German states favorable to her cause to support it, and invoked the aid of every supporter of the principalities. The Austrian government, deeming it best not to contest the occupation of Holstein by the Prussians, withdrew the whole of the Austrian troops.

On the 11th, the Prussians dispersed the estates of Holstein, which had met at Itzehoe, and established a new common government for Schleswig and Holstein, and promised to convoke the common estates of the two Duchies on the 12th. The whole of Holstein was in the hands of the Prussians.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Arrest of American Citizens in Ireland—Our London Minister Applies for their Release—Call for a National Union Convention by Senators Cowan, Doolittle & Co.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The President's communication in reference to American citizens arrested in Ireland states that our Minister in London and our Consuls have applied for their release, and all but two have been set at liberty. These it is thought will be.

The following call has been issued: A National Union Convention of at least two delegates from each congressional district of all the States, two from each Territory, two from the District of Columbia, and four delegates at large from each, will be held at the City of Philadelphia, on the fourteenth of August next. Such delegates will be chosen by the electors of the several States who sustain the Administration in maintaining unbroken the Union of the States.

Delegates are asked to agree to, first, the Union is perpetual and indissoluble; second, equality of States and right to representation are solemnly guaranteed; third, no right of secession or exclusion; fourth, slavery is abolished forever; fifth, each State has to prescribe qualifications for its own electors; sixth, maintenance of the right of each State to manage its domestic concerns inviolate. It concludes with an appeal to every patriot to frown upon the action of Congress, which can only rekindle animosities and to encourage peaceful and constitutional measures, but no delegate will take a seat in such Convention who does not loyally accept the national situation, and cordially endorse the principles above set forth, and who is not attached in true allegiance to the Constitution, Union and Government of the United States.

LOUISVILLE, June 25.—The morning papers report the fleecing of Thomas A. Reynolds of Indiana, on Saturday night by a party at faro-bank, of fifteen hundred dollars, and afterwards robbing him of twenty-five hundred dollars. Several parties were arrested to-day. The largest part of the missing money was found at the Louisville Hotel, where Reynolds put up, and the arrested party discharged.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, June 25, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Wilson reported an amendment to the army appropriation bill to make provision granting three months pay to officers upon final discharge, so as to benefit officers in service March 3d, 1865, or who were honorably mustered out after that date.

Mr. Poland offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds to inquire whether a certain tract of three hundred and fifty acres, adjoining or very near Washington, can be obtained at a reasonable price for a public park and a presidential mansion. Adopted.

Mr. Chandler presented a petition from the men of the first Michigan cavalry, who state that they were cut off from the army in Utah, and had to return home at their own expense. They ask to be reimbursed for the cost of their transportation. The petition was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Le Blond called up the bill, pending for some time, to allow claims of loyal persons in the late rebel States, for five hundred dollars or less, for stores furnished to the army, to be settled by the Quartermaster's Department, without being taken to the Court of Claims. The pending question was upon the amendment of Mr. Hendricks, to provide for the payment of stores taken by others than officers, having it within their authority to take them.

Mr. Hendricks, after discussion, withdrew his amendment, remarking that he would offer something of like purport at the next session of Congress.

Mr. Sprague moved to amend the bill so as to make the Secretary of War, and not the Quartermaster or Commissary General the accountable officers to receive the claims.

Mr. Howard said the bill was very sweeping and would involve a great outlay. He asked if the Committee on Judiciary had inquired how much money would be taken out of the Treasury under this bill.

Mr. Poland said the committee had not made that inquiry. No matter what the amount was, he thought the Government ought to pay it.

Mr. Howard hoped the bill would not pass. The seizure of property in the South was one of the necessities of war, and the law of nations compelled rebel communities, as well as rebels, to pocket their losses. It was vain to expect that the loyal people of the United States would bear any part of such losses.

Mr Trumbull said he would oppose, as strongly as Mr. Howard, the payment of rebels, but he would not oppose the payment of loyal men, and only such were proposed to be paid by this bill.

Mr. Howard said he was opposed to paying anybody in the rebel States, loyal or disloyal.

Mr. Trumbull thought a loyal man in the South ought to be paid even more promptly than a loyal man in the North.

Mr. Howard said that by the solemn acts of Congress the eleven States of the South had been declared enemies of the United States. There was no case in history in which a successful invading party had paid for stores taken from an enemy.

Mr. Trumbull said he had never heard before of a statute of the United States declaring the people of the South to be as public enemies. He had never voted for such a bill. He had voted for a bill declaring certain States to be in insurrection, but not declaring the inhabitants of those States, one and all, to be public enemies.

Mr. Wilson said that under the pending bill, every man in the South would prove his loyalty, and the effect would be to take a great many millions of dollars out of the treasury.

The morning hour expired.

The reading of the tax bill was resumed. Several verbal amendments were concurred in.

Mr. Fessenden offered an amendment that no suit shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any tax alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, until an appeal shall have duly been made to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Agreed to.

Mr. Davis offered an amendment to strike out the provision requiring distillers to keep a true record of and report the number of gallons distilled, etc. He stated that the bill showed more distrust of the people, and more degredation and oppression, than any bill he had ever seen. It proceeded upon the general idea that the people upon whom it was to act were all known plunderers.

Mr. Fessenden said there were no provisions in the bill that were not required to guard against fraud. The amendment of Mr. Davis was disagreed to.

Mr. Henderson offered an amendment to strike out the first section and insert in lieu thereof a provision that after the passage of this act there shall be no tax on lake cotton, and delivered a lengthy written argument in support of his proposition.

The yeas and nays were demanded upon Mr. Henderson's amendment with the following result:

Nays—Messrs. Chandler, Clark, Conness, Creswell, Doolittle, Edmunds, Fessenden, Grimes, Guthrie, Harris, Howard, Howe, Lane, of Indiana; Morgan, Morrill, Poland, Ramsey, Sherman, Trumbull, Van Winkle, Wade, Wilson and Williams—24. So the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Creswell offered an amendment to change the rate of compensation of Assistant Assessors from four to five dollars per day. Rejected by, yeas 5; nays 30. Yeas—Messrs. Cragin, Creswell, Howe, Kirkwood and Ramsey.

Mr. Trumbull offered an amendment to tax shoddy wool manufactured from old cloth 5 cents per pound. Adopted.

Mr. Harris offered an amendment in regard to bank circulation, providing that the act shall not effect banks in liquidation when the act of June 18th, 1864, was adopted.

Flax and manufactured articles therefore were added to the free list.

Mr. Anthony offered an amendment that the income tax lists be open for inspection, which was agreed too.

The bill was then taken up in the Senate.

Mr. Sherman moved to amend so that all bank circulation shall pay a tax of ten per cent. after the 1st of August, 1867.

Mr. Edmunds moved to change the tax on cotton from two to three cents. Disagreed to—yeas 6 and nays 26.

HOUSE.

Mr. Morrill, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill amendatory of the tariff act, which was read twice and referred to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union.

It was ordered to be printed and made the special order for Thursday next, and from day to day until disposed of.

Mr. Donnelly reported a bill granting land in aid of a railroad in Minnesota. Passed.

Mr. Schenck introduced a joint resolution concerning bounties to colored soldiers, removing certain words which defeated the objects of the bill; also, to protect them against claim agents.

Mr. Wentworth moved that the lobby should be excluded from the floor of the House.

The President's message, referring to the arrest of Americans in Ireland was taken up.

Mr. Banks stated that the report showed that Lawrence and Nagle were guilty of no crime, and under suspension of the habeas corpus, had been liberated.

Mr. Eldridge said he understood that to be the case as to some, but not to all. Referred.

Mr. Rice reported a bill providing for a Penitentiary in the Territories. Referred.

Mr. Butler introduced a bill to grant lands to railroad and telegraph lines from the Central Pacific to California and Oregon.

Mr. Wilson, a bill to punish crimes relating to public securities and events.

Mr. Van Horn, a bill to construct a bridge over the Missouri River. Referred.

TREATMENT OF THE INSANE.

The progress of all philanthropic movements is generally very slow, more particularly in a community comparatively new, where the immediate demands are for those things which minister directly to the more pressing wants of men. The minds of men are too much absorbed with what pertains to their daily necessities to be able to give attention and t hought to the concerns of others, and there is not, as a general rule, that freedom from care and that leisure which is requisite for the prosecution of schemes of benevolence. The older any community becomes the greater will be the number of objects demanding the care and attention of those anxious to relieve the wants and sufferings of their fellows, and at the same time will be found those who are able to give their time, their labor and their unwearied efforts to the promotion of the welfare of the sick and suffering.

In the care and treatment of the insane we find these principles fully exemplified. In the earlier states of society there is little mental disorder, but with the increasing struggles and burdens of life, with all its disappointments and perplexities, the causes of mental ailments become greater, and with the highest degree of civilization we find the greatest tendency to mental disorders and the strongest necessity for proper provision for those who are thus afflicted.

The earliest provision for the treatment of the Insane in this country was made in Philadelphia by private individuals; but no definite action was taken by the State authorities until about three-quarters of a century afterward. The movement in this case, also, was commenced in Philadelphia, and progressed so far as to procure the appointment of commissioners for building, the selection of a site near Gray's Ferry, and the commencement of the foundation of the building; but from financial embarrassments no further progress was made, and the movement was suspended until 1845, when the Legislature again took action on the subject, and a bill was passed incorporating the Pennsylvania State Lunatic Hospital. Various causes, however, combined to delay any definite action until 1848, when the building was commenced and the corner stone laid by Governor JOHNSTON. The building was so far completed in 1851, that the Board of Trustees was appointed to organize the Hospital and to prepare for the reception of patients.

The Hospital is situated a short distance north of the city of Harrisburg, and is built in what is known as the lineal plan, with a centre building and three wings on each side, at right angles to the centre building, the first wing joining the centre, the second parallel to the first, and connected at the rear of the end most distant from the centre, and the third in the same way connected with the second; thus giving ample light and air to the hall at each end. The centre building contains the different offices and departments for the officers, the kitchens, store rooms, &c. The wings have rooms on each side of a hall running the whole length, for the accommodation of the patients, attendants, with the requisite dining rooms, parlors, bath rooms, &c. The wings on one side of the centre building are for the males, and those on the other side for the females.

In the rear of the centre structure is the building for the bakery, wash-house, &c.; in the basement are the boilers in which the steam is generated for the heating of the whole house. Other smaller buildings have been put up, as the necessities of the Institution demanded, for various purposes connected with the domestic arrangement of the Hospital. There are, also, two museums and reading rooms and a ten-pin alley, erected by funds contributed by benevolent individuals for that special purpose. Attached to the Hospital is a large garden, in which are raised all the vegetables needed for the use of the Hospital throughout the year. A small farm is also attached, but from various causes part of it only is available for purposes of cultivation, though pasture is found during the summer sufficient for the cows which are kept for the use of the inmates; but the greater part of the feed during the winter must be purchased.

The Hospital was opened by Dr. CURWEN, its present Superintendent and Physician, for the reception of patients, on October 1st, 1851, and from that date to January 1st, 1866, (the date to which the last report is made,) two thousand and one patients have been admitted in all stages of mental disorder and of varying periods of duration, from one week to twenty years. The admissions show a large preponderance of males: 1,148 men and 853 women.

The number who were discharged during the same period was 1,695, of whom about one-fourth (401) were restored. The number of deaths were during that period 267. The other cases were either improved, many nearly restored and prematurely removed; others were of that class who had been insane in varying periods, but at the time of their admission presented little prospect of restoration.

Two facts are prominently shown by the examination of the statistics of this and all other hospitals for the insane: First, that the sooner a patient is placed under proper medical treatment, the earlier will it be restored to sound health; and, second, that when thus placed under treatment, it should be so continued until fully restored. Disorders of the mind are caused by some disease of the body or some disordered action of the functions, and these diseased conditions require to be removed by medical treatment before the mind can resume its proper action. All experience shows that in all diseases of the nervous system, time, and often a long time, is an essential element in the treatment. When once a plan of treatment has been adopted, it should be persevered in, until a complete, not a partial and illusory, restoration is effected. Too often the friends are impressed with the idea that the mental disorder will soon wear off by change of air and scene; but by a resort to these means the most important period for treatment is passed over, and by delay the disorder becomes more settled and more difficult of removal. Like all other diseased conditions, the sooner it is taken in hand the more likely will the mental disorder be removed. Where one person may be benefited by change of scene, &c., ninety-nine will be injured. The mental powers are too delicate and too important to be trifled with, and the happiness of an individual, and probably a family, blighted.

EDITORS PITTSBURGH GAZETTE:—Last winter you published a note from Mr. Levi Wade, President of the "Ladies Association," asking for clothing and help for the suffering freed people in a Hospital just opened in Nashville. That note met with a very prompt response from residents of both cities, and, in the course of a week, two large boxes were sent off by express. This movement was called out by an earnest letter from Wm. F. Mitchell, who had opened the hospital, at the request of Gen. Fisk, of the Freedmen's Bureau. A few days ago Mr. Mitchell, who has charge of the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Freedmen's Schools in Tennessee and Alabama passed through Pittsburgh. I wish all your readers, and especially those who contributed to those hospital boxes, could have heard Mr. Mitchell and his family speak of this hospital, and the Orphan Asylum and the schools, and the colony at Bethany, the old contraband camp. It would have done their hearts good to know how much their benefactions had accomplished. Although overworked before, when Gen. Fisk was willing to defray the expenses of the hospital for food, &c., they agreed to take charge of it, and as the patients came in, many of them extremely ill and even in a dying condition, they appealed, not in vain, to Pittsburgh and Allegheny for help, in the way of under clothing for the sick, clothing for infants, sheets, &c. As the poor sufferers had their miserable rags taken off, and they were washed and clad in these nice, neat, clean garments, it was touching to witness their thankfulness and joy. Many died, for they were too far gone when admitted. But for the timely help thus extended, nearly all would have perished. I recall one or two cases. A family was brought in, consisting of an old man, his son, his daughter-in-law, with a babe only a day or two old, and a small boy—all very sick, very poor and greatly depressed. Owing to the kind and judicious attention and suitable food and clothing, they soon began to improve. Learning that the young man was a shoemaker, he was asked to mend some of the old shoes sent from here. Doing this well, some leather was procured for him and he made a new pair. These well done, led to others. In a little time he began to get ahead, procured a room, got his wife and child home, a place in the country was found for the father, and since then all have been doing nicely, supporting themselves and benefiting the community. Could the money thus employed have been better spent, thus saving an entire family from destruction? Another case struck my attention. A poor woman with small pox had been sent to a small-pox hospital. In the delirium of her fever, the attendant, to save himself trouble, had tied her feet so that she could not get out of bed, and these cords had been allowed to remain so long that mortification ensued and both feet had to be cut off above the ankles, and though she got well, there she is, entirely unable to get about, even on crutches—a bright, industrious woman, anxious to work and help herself, but with no friends to procure artificial feet or other means of locomotion. Can no one devise a plan to help this sufferer? Another case was that of a man who, by the premature explosion of a charge of powder in blasting rocks, had both his eyes blown out. After the first day or two of his agony it was pleasant to notice his expressions of gratitude to those who had sent these comfortable clothes, &c.; and so Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were ready to go on with case after case. And now what, said they, is to become of these people, for the agent of the Bureau has been saying "our money is exhausted and this hospital must be closed."

The Orphanage, of which some of your readers have heard, and which has been aided materially by our Freedmen's Aid Commission here, and by the same Ladies' Association is a distinct affair altogether. Since it was opened, some eighteen months ago, it has had about one hundred and seventy orphans. Some have died, for they came in in a sick and perishing condition. Places have been procured for the most of them, and there are now some forty or so in the Orphanage. They are all under eight years old. Who can estimate the amount of good that has been done in this way?

The superintendent and teachers, a number of whom have very recently gone through Pittsburgh, all speak of the schools as having been kept up very prosperously. The attendance for a time was diminished by prevalence of small-pox, but the same anxiety to learn has prevailed, and in many cases with the happiest results. Almost all the school are closed for the summer.

In order to open the schools again in the fall it is necessary that fresh subscriptions and contributions should come in. A number of young people have progressed so far that they are thought to be prepared to act as assistant teachers, and, in some cases, to take charge of small schools on plantations and in villages. The demand for such is increasing. In a year or two more, it is hoped, that these will be entirely self-supporting. In the meantime, they must be aided as heretofore, by the patriotic and christian people of the North. The teachers all speak of the intense anxiety of the people that they should return and resume the schools. Shall we have the means of sending them back? "Let us not be weary in well doing." J. S. TRAVELLI,
General Agent Freedmen's Aid Commission for Western Pennsylvania, &c.

A GRAVE DIFFICULTY.—A difficulty of an unusual nature has sprung up in Dayton, which is not yet settled. The late J. F. Bollmeyer, editor of the Dayton Empire, a violent anti-war democrat, while living, met with death in a street fight. His wife procured a monument to be erected over his grave in Woodland Cemetery, the inscription on which contained the words, "He fell by the hands of an assassin—a martyr to the cause of liberty of speech and of the press." The trustees and lot owners of the cemetery, asserting that this inscription was insulting and offensive to a majority of the people of Dayton, refused the monument admission to the cemetery. Afterwards, however, it was clandestinely, in the night, placed over the grave. The trustees then respectfully requested Mrs. Bollmeyer to have the offensive matter erased, which she positively declined to do. The monument was therefore removed by the trustees, and held subject to her order. So the matter stands at present. The trustees avow their readiness to submit the subject to any court having jurisdiction. The friends of the deceased, of course, appeal to public sympathy by the assumption that a grave has been desecrated.

THE Mobile Register and Advertiser, of June 7th, in an editorial article, says:

"To have been a Union man at the South while war flamed from the swords and brands of Union troops at our very hearthstones, was to have been an insensible brute, without a spark of the soul or one throb of the pulse of man. We scorn the insinuation that the heroic men who fought on the Southern side, in the late war, were traitors. The father of lies never uttered a baser lie. If they were, we shared their guilt. Thank God, we have no part of the guilt of those who, while war raged, were traitors to their hearths, neighbors, countrymen and States."

"PA," said little Channing to his paternal ancestor, holding up a Sunday school picture book, "what is that?" "That, my son," gravely replied the father, "is Jacob wrestling with the angel." "And which licked, pa?" innocently continued the young hopeful. Peter Families looked at him, mildly but firmly, for a moment, and then suggested that he had better go and see if the chickenwire was not scratching up the garden.

BROWN'S VERMIFUGE COMFITS, OR WORM LOZENGES.—Much sickness undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no positive injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

Symptoms of worms in children are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making BROWN'S "VERMIFUGE COMFITS" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

Heatless Outrage Upon a Young Woman —Arrest of the Alleged Guilty Parties.

A shocking affair transpired in the vicinity of Butchers Run, Reserve township, near Allegheny city, on Sunday evening. The particulars our reporter learned to be about as follows: Between nine and ten o'clock, John Cash, a young man, residing in the Third Ward, Allegheny, called upon a young woman, about twenty years of age, named Mena Carawick, with whom he was acquainted, and invited her to take a walk with him and join some others, males and females, who had started out for a promenade, the night being most pleasant and clear. She consented, and after proceeding some distance Cash pointed out a spot on the hillside where he said he had arranged to meet the acquaintances referred to. The young woman made no objection, and they soon reached the locality. Being seated, Cash began talking and acting indecently. Finding persuasion useless, he used force, threw the young woman to the ground, and outraged her. Presently another young man, named Michael Hall, alleged to have been an accomplice, appeared, and attempted to repeat the offense. Although well nigh exhausted, she made a vigorous resistance, got away from her assailant, and attempted to escape, screaming as she ran for assistance. Coming to a fence, she was in the act of climbing over it, when Hall overtook her, pulled her back, causing her to fall, and to receive injuries that prevented her making further resistance. Fortunately officer Hess, of the Allegheny police, attracted by the cries made by the young woman, arrived on the spot in time to prevent a repetition of the outrage. Hall and Cash fled at the appearance of the officer, who started in persuit, but they soon got out of his sight, having considerably the start of him in the race. Mr. Hess returned to the young woman, and found her still prostrate, with her face bloody and clothing torn and soiled. He started with her in the direction of the Allegheny Mayor's office, carrying her in his arms a portion of the way, and while passing along in the upper portion of the Third ward, the young woman, espying Hall standing in a corner, pointed him out to the officer. Mr. Hess took him in custody, and gave the victim to the same into the charge of officer Hobson, who came up in the meantime. Hall, when first accosted, denied all knowledge of the affair, and avowed that no policeman could take him, but the production of a revolver by the officer caused him to throw off the demeanor of a braggart and quietly accompany Mr. Hess to the lockup.

Upon reaching the Mayor's office, Miss Carawick was entirely overcome. Recovering sufficiently, she gave an account of the affair substantially as appears above, when Capt. David Mckeivey, of the night police, at once made arrangements to secure the man Cash. His father's house was watched during the night, and at early dawn he was captured, while in the act of taking his departure.

A hearing was had before Mayor Morrison yesterday forenoon, and the accused were committed to jail to answer for the heinous crime imputed to them. Hall and Cash are both young men, and the latter bears by no means a good reputation.

The outraged young woman is respectably connected, and great sympathy is felt and expressed in the neighborhood where she resides against her assailants.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

Judges Sterrett and Brown.

MONDAY, June 25.—In the case of Kate Patterson, tried on Friday last for assault and battery, Thomas Philips prosecutor, the jury found a verdict of not guilty, each party to pay one-half the costs.

GIVEN A VERDICT.

Thomas Norton, the Scotchman, charged with the larceny of a carpet sack from one of the Monongahela river packets, was brought in from prison and acquitted by a jury, the District Attorney representing that he did not feel warranted in pressing a conviction. Norton was discharged by proclamation.

LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS.

Joseph Schell, of Birmingham, was tried on an indictment for selling liquor to minors, John Koehnline prosecuting witness. From facts elicited at the hearing, leave of defendant's application for license, on the 1st inst., it appearing that he had violated the law in selling to minors, the court ordered him to enter into recognizance to appear and answer the coercion, which was done accordingly, and in consequence of said order the District Attorney submitted an indictment to the grand jury. A verdict of guilty was rendered and sentence deferred.

Mr. Schell was also indicted for selling liquor on Sunday, and put in a plea of nolle contendere.

Elizabeth Nesbit, of Temperanceville, put in a plea of guilty to selling liquor without license, and was sentenced to pay of fifteen dollars and the costs.

AN OIL REFINERY ALLEGED A NUISANCE.

Andrew Young, J. J. Young, R. B. Young and Jacob Bower, members of the Pearl Oil Company, were placed on trial on an indictment for nuisance in erecting a building for the purpose of refining crude oil, in Union township, Washington county, Temperanceville, in which is stored and kept large quantities of crude oil, paraffine, residium, benzole, tar and acids, from which divers hurtful, pestilence and unwholesome smells arise, thereby greatly infecting and corrupting the air, to the great damage and common nuisance of citizens residing in the neighborhood and passing along the public highways; further, that the defendants, in operating said refinery, cause and suffer to be conveyed and drained great quantities of noxious and offensive liquid matter into a certain ancient stream of water, known as Miller's Run, corrupting and making it unwholesome, to the great injury and common nuisance of persons residing near the stream and using of the water. The prosecutors in the case were John Smitley and Samuel Carnahan. Quite a number of witnesses were examined, the testified to the very unpleasant and annoying smells emitted from the refinery, and to the depositing in the run of residium, which was very injurious and damaging to horses' legs and feet. It was further testified that wells in the vicinity were impregnated with refuse, seriously affecting the drinkage in the same. It also occurred from a well within the refinery, sunk to the gravel, some twenty feet from the surface, bottles of impregnated water were offered in evidence, indicating unmistakably the presence of oil. The case was taken up at eleven o'clock, and occupied the entire afternoon session of the Court.

LETTER FROM ANAWAN.

GREENSBURG, PA., June 23, 1866.

On affidavit of Eli Palmer before Justice Singer, a warrant was issued for the apprehension of David Bearinger and Archie Shields, charged in said affidavit with the larceny of a trunk of clothes from the railroad platform at Blairsville Intersection, last December. The warrant was placed in the hands of officer Cain, who with a pass left here yesterday morning to make the arrest. The supposed culprits were found in a den kept by the said Bearinger on the Chestnut Ridge. They were arrested and brought here last night, and committed in default of two hundred dollars bail each. Palmer did not appear against them, and has the railway company's check for the trunk; it is supposed he will not make a vigorous prosecution.

Last evening a young lady named Kohrer, about seventeen years old, was stepping from rock to rock on the bank of the Loyalhana, at Latrobe, when she missed her step, and, falling in the river, was drowned before succor could reach her.

The alarm of fire here, yesterday, shortly after noon, stirred up the latent energies of our usually dormant denizens, notwithstanding the heat of the day. It was soon discovered to be the roof of the Westmoreland House on fire. Fortunately it was discovered in time to extinguish the fire before it had done much damage. ARAWAN.

Assault and Battery.—Jane Simmons was arrested yesterday and brought before Justice Lipp, of Birmingham, charged on oath of Annie Grimes with assault and battery. The prosecutrix alleged that Annie attacked her on Saturday for no cause whatever, and pulled her hair in handfulls out of her head. Mrs. Grimes acknowleged that she had pulled Jane's hair, but stated that the latter had called her a great many harsh names before she resorted to this means of redress. After hearing several witnesses in the case whose testimony did not differ in any essential from the statements made by the interested parties, the case was discharged, the costs being divided between the prosecutrix and defendant.

Larceny of a Horse Pistol.—John Culp yesterday appeared before Alderman Taylor and made oath against John Long for the larceny of a horse pistol valued at twenty dollars. Culp states that he resides at No. 867 Penn street, near Hill's grocery store, and that on Sunday he went to visit a relative in Allegheny. On his return he discovered that the pistol was missing. Circumstances pointed to Long as the thief, and Culp hastened therefore to make the information as stated above. A warrant was issued.

Had a Hearing.—Henry Miller, the man who was arrested on Sunday night while boring into a whisky barrel on the Monongahela Wharf, in order to satisfy his appetite for the ardent, had a hearing yesterday, at which he admitted being guilty of the offense charged. He was committed to jail on a charge of larceny, by his Honor Mayor McCarthy, who admonished him against the evil of allowing his appetite to run away with his honesty.

Court of Common Pleas.—Hon. Thomas Mellon presiding.

This Court met Monday morning at ten o'clock, but as the attornies were unable to try a case, those entered on the trial list were continued until the September term, and the court adjourned.

TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Meeting of the Southern Express Company—The Nomination of Gov. Johnson, of Georgia—Internal Revenue Receipts for the Fiscal Year—The New Tariff Bill.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The morning papers contain the following specials from Washington: The Express Company, started at the South since the war, have had a meeting of their Board of Directors to take into consideration steps to raise money to keep up the Company. It appears that seventy per cent. of the stockholders have quit paying up. Although one and a half millions have been called in, only four hundred thousand dollars have been paid. It was finally agreed that all shareholders who would not pay up twenty dollars per share, at once, should forfeit all they have paid unto those who have paid the the thirty per cent.

The nomination of Provisional Governor Johnson, of Georgia, as Minister to Bogota, will, it is said be followed this week by two other Provisional Governors to important positions. It is not probable that they will be confirmed by the Senate, as Holden cannot take the test oath, and it is doubtful about Johnson.

The aggregate receipts of Internal Reveneue for the fiscal year promises to reach, without doubt, the round sum of $300,000,000, and of the revenue from all sources, $540,000,000.

Supervisor Henry Smyth, of New York, is here. It is reported that he is here to make a tender of the new court house to the Government for a postoffice. If accepted, the Supervisors of course will immediately proceed with the construction of another costly and elegant building.

Intelligence has been received at the Navy Department, that the Miantonamah, with Captain Fox, was spoken about the 7th inst., one hundred miles from St. Johns, N. B., with all well on board.

A Tribune Washington special says: The new tariff is so near completed that it is expected the Committee can finish it at their session to-morrow. They have so far cut down what is known among American manufacturers as the Colwell tariff, prepared by a year's labor, after consulting the various interests that were asking protection, that a number of leading interests say they will have no protection, and already combinations are being made on the floor to so amend the bill as to give it a protective character.

The endeavor to obtain a duty of one cent per pound on soda ash, which is now all imported, until some extensive works could be built here that will enable Americans to supply a home article at two cents per pound, which during the war rated from four to twelve cents, failed yesterday. Mr. Morrill thought because there were no manufactories here now for that purpose that soda ash should come in free of duty, and the Committee refused the advance.

Drugs, chemicals, olive stuffs, wines and liquors, and other like articles, from which a source of great revenue could be derived, are to be passed over entirely for want of time The bituminous coal tax wanted one dollar to protect them from the Nova Scotia article, mined close by the seaboard. They will only get fifty cents—not the amount of internal revenue taxes.

FROM MEXICO.

Wagon Train Captured by Liberals—Imperial Troops Routed with Heavy Loss—General Olvira Severely Wounded.

CINCINNATI, June 25.—A dispatch to the Commercial dated Brownsville, Texas, June 18th says: A train of two hundred and fifty wagons ladened with valuable merchandise, started by General Filisola from Matamoras for Monterey, guarded by sixteen hundred Imperial troops, under General Olvira, were attacked on the 5th between Camargo and Mier by General Escobedo, at the head of four thousand Liberals. The Imperial loss was five hundred killed and wounded and eight hundred prisoners, fourteen pieces of artillery, and the entire train captured. The value of the merchandise captured is estimated at a million and a half dollars.

The Cholera.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Dr. Swinburne paid a visit to the hospital ship, and his statements concerning affairs there are full of encouragement. There were no admissions to the hospital capacity, and no deaths. Dr. Swinburne states that there is not now a single case of cholera in the Bay.

It is a remarkable fact that since the separation of the two vessels, Irish emigrants on board the steamer Union, a period of over twenty-two days, there has not been a single case of cholera on board that vessel.

Another case of cholera was reported at the office of the Board of Health yesterday. It was that of a woman named Margaret McCarthy, residing in Forty-second Street. She had been ill five days, and died yesterday morning, as the attending physician said, of aggravated cholera morbus.

HALF A MILLION DOLLARS IN PRIZES

The postponement is an unavoidable necessity, from such a large number of the tickets (about 45,000 yet unsold) as the positive necessity there is for the proper registration of those already disposed of, which has been delayed in consequence of the negligence and carelessness of a portion of our Agents in making their proper returns.

We advise all parties wanting tickets to send for them without delay, as we have but a limited number yet on hand. We wish most particularly to impress upon the minds of our Agents the importance of their making their returns at once, and of rectifying whatever errors may have crept into their reports heretofore. We will say to those sending for tickets, that if they should all be sold at the time their order is received, the money will be returned.

No applications for new agencies for the sale of tickets will be considered, as we have no more than sufficient tickets to supply those Agents we have already appointed. Tickets are for sale at the principal hotels, book and music stores in the city, and at our office, 132 Dearborn street; price $1.00 each; sent by mail on receipt of price and stamp for return postage.

NOTICE.

CHICAGO, ILL., Saturday, June 23, 1866.

WE WOULD RESPECTFULLY announce that in consideration of the following cogent (and we trust satisfactory) reasons, we have finally concluded that a postponement would be really advantageous to the public and ourselves, namely, that we prefer to than to hold a quantity of tickets (as proprietors usually do) and thereby enhance our chances of drawing the large prizes.

The Grand Scheme will be published in the Chicago daily papers as soon as drawn, and when the drawing is over each agent will be furnished with a complete list of the drawn numbers.

In view of the above reasons, which we hope will prove eminently satisfactory,

WE HAVE POSTPONED THE DRAWING

FINANCE AND TRADE.

MONDAY, June 25, 1866.

Gold is quiet and the fluctuations for some days past have been slight. To-day it was quoted at 153⅝. Mr. P. R. Mertz's New York stock quotations to-day were as follows: 1881s 110½@110⅝; 5-20's, 106@106⅜; 10-40's (large) 96½; small, 96 7-8@97; 102's, Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 82½; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 97¾; Chicago & Northwestern, 29¾; Erie, 58⅝.

Gold opened in New York this morning at 153¾, declined to 152¼, and closed at the Second Board at 153⅝. The demand is light, either for export or custom house purposes, and unless the "bear" interest can be induced to sell "short" again, the probability is that gold will still further decline. The excitement produced by the rumors that the new tariff was going into immediate effect, has subsided; and when the government disburses the nine millions interest due July 1st, the "bull" party may find that they will have a pretty heavy load to carry, though they seem to have entire control of all the gold outside of the national treasury.

Mining stocks are beginning to shows signs of renewed life and activity. There is a little flurry in Gregory Gold stock, which is being managed by a clique for a rise, though its real val value does not exceed 13 dollars per share. United States Oil stock has stiffened up a little, and is now selling in New York at 7 to 7¼. Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad stock has got down to a remarkably low figure, notwithstanding a sharp advance was predicted several days ago. The fact that the stock has been permitted to decline for several days may be a trick, which has for its object the entrapping of some more victims. It is stated that the Oil Basin Petroleum Company, of Philadelphia, the stock of which company has been under an eclipse for some considerable length of time, has, or is about to, declare a dividend. This will be both gratifying and unexpected intelligence to some of the stockholders.

The following statement exhibits the business of the Pittsburgh Clearing House for the week closing on Saturday, June 22:

	Exchanges.	Balances.
June 19	292,272 07	75,323 79
June 20	325,347 70	89,907 50
June 21	365,650 97	99,670 04
June 22	204,372 16	58,639 64
Total	$1,773,746 51	$482,547 14

The letters by the China are quite cheerful in tone from London and Liverpool, and so far as American interests are involved, equally confident from Germany. But the war between Prussia and Austria was creating the utmost financial concern, and great distress among the working classes at Berlin, and the feeling of anxiety extended throughout the Prussian Kingdom and small States of Germany. The English letters look to an early reduction of the rates of interest, and to the flow of capital from the continent as soon as the war breaks out into the actual and terrible conflict of arms, which was looked for the week after the China sailed. The same influence, it was believed in London, would be felt by the public securities of this country.

—A convention of glass manufacturers was in session at Philadelphia last week—the leading firms engaged in the business throughout the country being represented. It was said that the glass manufacturing business has been so much injured by the low rate of tariff put upon imported manufactured glassware, that many shops have been compelled to suspend operations entirely, and the others have no little encouragement to continue the business that but a small number of hands are employed. The ware can be imported, after payment of duties, sold at a less price than our manufacturers can afford to make it. It is desired by them that Congress raise the tariff on this article of importation.

—An idea of the immense productive power of the West may be inferred from the products of one township—Auburn, Geauga, Co., Ohio, in 1865: Wheat, 158 bushels; corn, 385 acres, 13,633 bushels; oats, 305 acres, 10,301 bushels; potatoes, 53 acres, 3861 bushels; flax, 6 acres, 96 bushels. Ninety-one acres of clover yielded 130 tons of hay, and 253 acres of meadow produced 3309 tons of hay. Pounds of wool, 6450; pounds of butter, 30,774; and over 600,000 pounds of cheese. There was made 55,-350 pounds of sugar, and 443 gallons syrup.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The money market remains extremely easy, with the supply largely in excess of the demand. National bank currency is very plenty and can be borrowed flat for five or ten days, by returning legal tenders. Call loans range from 4 to 5 per cent. The gold market became stronger as the day grew to a close, and the last sales were at 153⅝@153⅝. This upward turn is due in part to the decreasing in banks here and the prospect of the passage of the tariff bill. The Government securities were firm this afternoon, but rather quiet. The following were the closing prices: Coupons, 1881, 110⅝@110⅝; 5-20 coupons, 64, 107⅜@107⅝; 10-40 coupons, 96⅞; June 7-30s, 102⅜@102⅝; July do., 102@102⅛; August do., 101⅝@101⅞.

The money market is easy, at 4@5 per cent. Sterling quiet, but firm at 109@109¼. Gold irregular and firmer, opening at 153¾, advancing to 153⅞, declining to 152¾, advancing to 153¾, and closing at 153⅝. Government stocks are dull. Freights to Liverpool more active at 4d to 4 9-16d for corn per steamer.

Weekly Bank statement—Loans, $248,143,886; increase, $1,134,; specie, $8,504,096; decrease, $2,713,300; circulation, 38,380,385; increase, $1,961,-24; deposits, $201,369,288; decrease, $445,288.

Stocks steady; Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago, 98½; Chicago and Rock Island, 94; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 82½; Michigan Central, 104½; Erie, 58⅝; New York Central, 98½; Reading, 109¾; Western Union Telegraph Russian Extension, 100; Western Union Telegraph, 54; 5-20 Coupons, 82, 103⅝; 10-40 Coupons 96⅞; 7-30s second series, 103⅜; Fourth National Bank, 103⅝; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 27.

The Post's money article says: The loan market is easy, at 4@5 per cent. for advances on call, with approved collaterals. The discount demand is light, and first class commercial paper passes freely, at 5@7 per cent. The stock market is dull, but closed with a slight improvement. The bank statement shows some important changes, the chief of which are that the specie has declined more than two and a half millions, while the legal tenders have increased one and a half millions, and the loans one million. After board Erie sold at 58⅝.

At the second regular and last open Boards, the market was firmer on the railways, Erie taking the lead. At the afternoon Board there was a very full meeting, and considerable excitement and activity on leading shares. United States was the favorite among the Petroleum stocks, and rose to 90. Consolidated Gregory was the great feature of the mining list, and sold largely from 289 down to 260. This decline is equal to 30 per share from the highest point of the day. There was no material change in any other stocks on the list.

The Commercial's money article says: Wall street exhibits rather more activity. The foreign news was looked for with much interest by the speculators in gold as likely to bring lower quotations for 7-30s, but the failure of this expectation has only served to check the upward tendency of the premium. The rate of interest on borrowed gold is 1 1-16@1 per cent. per day. Foreign Exchange is decidedly firmer. The leading drawers are indisposed to sell at the low rates. We quote 109 for ten days Sterling bills and 110¼ for sight. There is, however, a supply of second hand bills which are offered at much lower rates. Good banker's sixty days sterling is offered at 107@107¼, and sight at 109@109¾.

Money continues very abundant. Some of the banks are refusing to lend at the current low rates, but without checking the declining tendency. The rate to prime borrowers, on call, is 4 per cent. on any good securities, though a light proportion of the business is still done at 5 per cent. Discounts are quiet at 5@7 per cent., with more transactions at the lower rates. Governments are quiet; there are no indications of 5-20's having been returned by the steamers last arrived. Stock speculation is quiet, but exhibits symptoms of improvement; Erie is again a fraction lower, having been sold at the board at 57¾.

LATEST.—The gold market is strongest at 154⅛@154⅝. Loans were more flat at the close. Railway shares show an improved tendency. Foreign exchange is very firm at one per cent. advance. Bankers' long bills on London are quoted at 108¾@109; short date 109@110.

At the four o'clock open board, the following were the principal sales: Western Union Telegraph, 58¾; Erie, 58¾; Michigan Southern & Northern Indiana, 77½; Cleveland & Toledo, 103½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 83¼; Chicago & Northwestern, 29¾; do. preferred, 59; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 98¾.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Cotton; no change in the market, at 38@39c for middling Uplands, 7.50 for extra State; $5.90@6.00 for extra round hoop Ohio, and $10.00@15.75 for extra brands, closing heavy. Whiskey quiet, at $2.24@2.27. Wheat market very dull and nominal. Corn dull, and 1c lower, at 88@89c for unsound new western; 92@93 for sound do, the inside price at the whisky also one boat load at 95@96c for new western; the latter are extreme. Coffee dull. Sugar dull, Cuba at 10½@11¼c. Molasses dull. Petroleum dull, at 25½c for crude, and 49@51c for refined in bond. PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

The week does not open very auspiciously for business as this has undoubtedly been one of the poorest days this summer. The oppressively hot weather doubtless has a tendency to cause dullness and stagnation, but at this particular season of the year trade is always a little slack, and usually remains so until towards fall. In the produce markets there have been no new characteristics to-day worthy of special notice, the demand for all of the leading commodities being very light, and values generally remain unchanged.

GRAIN—Wheat is in light supply, and prime to choice Springs may be quoted at $2,35@2,40. Oats quiet but unchanged at 54@55 for No. 1 Chicago, in elevator, and 57@60 for prime Ohio and Penna. Rye is in demand at $1, and Corn is held pretty firmly at 80 for prime shelled. Spring Barley is quoted at 90 to $1, as to quality, and Buckwheat is selling in a regular way at $2,25.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm, with a moderate jobbing demand but unchanged at 16 for Shoulders; 19 for Ribbed Sides, and 25 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull but firm at 22½ for steamed, and 23 for prime kettle. Mess Pork is quoted at $33,50@34. No movement in Bulk Meats.

FLOUR—Is firm with a fair local demand but unchanged. We continue to quote at $10,50 to $11,25 for fair to good Spring Wheat Family; $11,50@12 for half Spring and half Winter, $12,50@13 for all Winter, and $14@16 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is held firmly at $6,75.

POTATOES—In rather better demand, and as the supply is light, prices may be quoted a shade higher. We can report a sale of 1 car Peach Blows at $1,15, and the same car load was afterwards sold in lots at $1,25@1,40 per bushel. Sales in barrels at $3,25 to $3,50, as to quality.

EGGS—The supply although not very large, is somewhat in excess of the demand, and prices are barely maintained. Sales at 25.

CHEESE—Is a little dull but unchanged; sales of Western Reserve at 18@16; Hamburg at 17@18, and 21@22 for Goshen.

BUTTER—No Roll Butter in market. Packed is quotable at 20 to 22, the last named figure only for prime.

SORGHUM—Is quiet and unchanged; Small sales of prime at 55 to 60, and inferior at 40 to 45.

SEEDS—There is no demand of any consequence for either Clover or Timothy seeds. Flaxseed is in good request, and sells readily at $2,65@2,70.

ASHES—Pearls are quoted firm at 15 to 15½. No movement in Soda Ash.

HOMINY—Is selling at 4c.

PIG LEAD—Is quoted at 11½@12.

BEANS—Prime White Beans are in demand at $2 per bushel.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

CRUDE—The Crude market continues very dull and depressed, the demand both for home use and shipment being very much restricted, and prices are barely maintained. We quote at 13, bbls returned; 13¼ in bulk, and 17¼@18¼ bbls included—sale of 800 bbls at 17¼, and 150 at 17¾, packages included. "Smith's Ferry" oil is being offered at 12½, without finding buyers, and refiners are predicting that they will buy good gravities of crude at the same price before many days elapse. It is true, the stock of oil on the market is not as large as generally supposed, for are there any two hundred and fifty to three hundred thousand barrels in the hands of speculators, but there is no disguising the fact that the supply is somewhat in excess of the demand at present. The advices from the east continue discouraging, the last news by the foreign steamer Canadian Prince, but repeated almost everything at present points to a lower market.

REFINED—There is still a continued fair demand for bonded oil, both for present and future delivery, but there is not the slightest improvement in prices, we are sorry to say for them. It seems probable that such a desirable event will occur soon, however. We can report sales of 2000 bbls for August delivery in Philadelphia, at 42; 300 for September, at 43; 250 do for June month, at 43½; and 200 for October at 42½. For present delivery in Philadelphia, quotations may be fairly given at 38, and July at 39; holders generally asking 40. The Boston Bulletin says: "Notwithstanding the high rates of gold, the shipping demand is quite limited, and will probable remain so till the foreign exchange markets become more settled. Should the home market show signs of speculative breaking down, it is highly probable that orders from that quarter will be withheld till a new period of the season. British and Continental dealers will be able to hold off for some time to come, as their stocks on hand are five times greater than at the corresponding time last year, or 20,000,000 gallons 4,000,000. This is owing to the heavy shipments in that direction early in the year."

ARRIVALS—The arrivals since Saturday are very large, including 500 bbls refined for the Penna. Salt Co., and 32 bbls crude for H. McKelvy. Mr. D. M. Edgerton received 100 bbls of bulk on Saturday, and Messrs. Buffum, Kehew & Co. received to-day, by rail, 105 bbls from Smith's Ferry.

Buffalo Market.

BUFFALO, June 25.—Flour quiet. Wheat firm and parties apart; held at $2,25 for No. 1 Milwaukee, $2,20 bid. Corn dull and nominal at 76 for No. 1 mixed. Oats dull; No. 2 Chicago at 42½; held at 46@47c, and No. 1 Milwaukee. Barley nominal. Rye, No. 1 Chicago, 95c; at Scotch, $1,05. Pork $33@33,50. Lard 25c. Whisky scarce and nominal. Canal Freights firm; to New York: wheat 19c, corn 16, oats 10. Canal Exports: wheat 20,947 bu, corn 216,558 bu, oats 14,250 bu, rye, 5,400 bu. There is afloat on the canal, destined for tide water, including twenty-one days' shipments from Buffalo and fifteen days' shipments from Oswego: flour, 115 bbls; rye, 1,000 bbl; 658,000 bu corn; 3,201,172 bu oats, 1,121,883 bu; barley, 25,887 bu; rye, 174,887 bushels.

Chicago Lumber Market.

CHICAGO,—The sales afloat since our last issue include the following:

90 m ft, ¾ strips and scantling, balance boards, at $22. 115 m feet, ¾ strips, balance clears to arrive, at $22. 125 m sawed shingles at $5,87½. 25 m lath at $4. 50 m lumber, ¾ strips balance mixed, at $17,75. 100 m feet, ¾ joist and scantling, 12 to 24 feet, balance boards and strips, at $22; lath at $4. 25 m feet clear rafted strips at $35; 35 m feet common strips and mixed at $18; 200 flat pickets at $15. 50 m feet common mixed at $17. 45 m feet 2x4 scantling and joists at $18,50; 225 m "A" sawed shingles at $5,87½.—Journal.

Boston Fish Market.

BOSTON, June 23.—Sales of Grand Bank and Bay Fundy at $6,25@7,75 per qtl for medium and large, including English and French; small are held at $4@5. New Georges are selling here and in Gloucester at $7,50@7,75 per qtl, and 100 qtls have been sold in New York at $7,62½@7,75. Hake are selling at $3,00 per qtl loose, and $3,50 per qtl packed. Pollock are in demand and firm at $2,50 @3 per qtl.

New No. 3 mackerel are now arriving quite freely, and previous extreme rates are not sustained. We quote sales in small lots at $14 per bbl. Old No. 1s are reselling at $19,50 per bbl, but very scarce.

Butter in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, June 22.—We have to report a continued good demand, and the receipts being hardly equal to the demand, the market is firm at full prices. We quote prime to choice central Ohio at 25@27c, and the lower grades at 20@24c. There is not enough doing in Western Reserve to warrant quotations, as there is a limited amount coming forward. The demand is mainly local, and prices could not be sustained under liberal arrivals.

Baltimore Butter Market.

BALTIMORE, June 22.—There is a little better feeling, with more inquiry for solid packed Western, but sales are restricted on account of the limited receipts, and advanced views of holders. Western yellow is held at 25@26 cts; sales of 50 kegs prime at 27@28c. Franklin street roll in light supply, with sales at 24@25 cts; blades, but little here; prime now held at 22@23 cents. Eggs in limited receipt and quiet at 22 cents.

Toledo Market.

Shipments—9,000 bbls flour, 20,000 bush wheat, 84,000 bush corn, 3,000 bush oats.

Baltimore Market.

BALTIMORE, June 25.—Flour quiet; low grades heavy. Wheat quiet. Corn dull; receipts small. Oats dull and drooping. Provisions firm. Stocks light. Sugar quiet, with a downward tendency. Whisky dull and heavy, at $2,28 for Western.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with three and a half feet in the channel last evening. The weather yesterday was the hottest of the season, and there was but very little business done at the landing or anywhere else.

The Camelia, from Cincinnati, is the only transient arrival we have to report. She had a very fair trip. The Fayette and Chieftan, from Brownsville, and the Lena Leoti, from Parkersburg, were due here last night, and will doubtless be found in port this morning.

The Bart, for Parkersburg, was the only departure, and we are of the opinion that numbers we have more rain, and that, too, very soon, she will be again obliged to retire from the trade, and a low water boat substituted in her place.

A special dispatch to the Chronicle announces the sinking of the steamer John S. Hall, above Gallo Rock, on Friday of last week. The Hall was owned in Cincinnati, and was valued at $18,000. She was insured for $12,000 in the Eureka and Pittsburgh insurance Companies. Capt. John Woodburne, one of the oldest and most influential steamboatmen was part owner of the lost boat.

The new and staunch R. C. Gray, Capt. Anderson, is filling up rapidly for St. Louis and St. Paul, and it is expected that she will get off to-day. The Gray is a low water boat, and will go through with dispatch.

The Lotus No. 2, Capt. Sheidden, is loading direct for Memphis and New Orleans, and will probably be ready to take her departure to-day.

The Fayette, Capt. Cox, and the Chieftan, Capt. Abrams, are the regular packets for Brownsville and Geneva to-day, leaving promptly at five o'clock p. m.

The Importer left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Friday. The Columbia left from St. Louis to this point was at Cairo on Saturday, and the Glasgow was at Evansville the same day, both up. The St. Louis Democrat of Saturday says:

The papers were to be made out yesterday for the following transfers: Steamer J. H. Wade, one-sixth; do C. A. Quinlan to E. A. Fonda and Geo. Hayden. Steamer D. Woodward for $8,500 by E. L. Woodward of Paducah, to Washington Sterratt of St. Louis. Captain Dan Lamb, of Memphis, purchased the Woodward at auction a few days since, but repudiated the purchase. There is some misunderstanding in regard to the carrying out of Virgil Stanton's contract from Cincinnati to this port. Richard Howard of our district court took the Nightingale to task yesterday, charging her with a contravention of a recent order from Washington, and intends to serve processes likewise on the Rose Hamilton, Bertha, Sherman, and other boats when practicable. Dick Howard sues these boats in the hope of settling the matter finally. The chere of the Nightingale applied at the Cincinnati Custom House for a permit to carry these cargoes, and was referred to a chemist to learn whether the oil was explosive. He called on Mr. Wayne, of the house of S. Eckestein & Co. Fourth and Vine, who sailed at the question, and said it was not explosive. A verbal permit was then given to the Nightingale, as to the other boats, to carry the article as freight

A CURE FOR INTEMPERANCE.

Dr. S. Cutter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.

The greatest Nervine ever discovered. The addition, within the last ten years, of Dr. Cutter's Nervine to the ingredients in the English Bitters, makes it a perfect antidote to intemperance. Previous to the discovery of the Nervine, this medicine was before the English public, celebrated as a Tonic and Alterative, in diseases of the Stomach and of the Bowels, and diseases arising from impedition of the blood. A portion of its virtues always the choice of the Stomach in all persons addicted to the use of stimulants and narcotics, such as alcohol and malt liquors, tobacco, opium, arsenic, tobacco, &c. It removes the morbid appetite, or craving of the stomach for stimulants in Headache, Neuralgia, and all nervous diseases. It has no equal as a Nervine.

Ten years use of the improved English Bitters in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, Sir Mary's Hospital, Newgate and other prisons, has established its reputation, as a cure for intemperance, and gained for it the approval of the attending surgeons in all the hospitals and prisons throughout Great Britain, and is further sustained by many physicians in private practice, for persons addicted to the use of stimulants and sedatives. In Paralysis, St. Vitus' Dance, Epileptic Fits, Nervous Trembling, and all Nervous diseases, it has no equal. Wholesale and Retail Agent.
